January 2019

Dear Members and Guests:

On Saturday, 12 January, 2019, please join us for a visit to the Brezel Museum in Erdmannhausen

Housed in the former Brezel factory of Emil Huober, where rows of pretzels were once wrapped by hand, the Brezel Museum offers insight into this traditional Swabian pastry: Where does its name come from? Where does the shape come from? Was it invented by an Italian monk? A baker from Urach? They promise to answer these questions and more during our tour. (www.brezelmuseum.de)

In addition, each person will have the chance to make his or her own Brezel! We will divide up into two groups: one group will tour the museum while the other one is baking - and then we'll switch off. Entrance fee: 5€ members, 10€ non-members.

The Tours will start at 15:00, please try to be there no later than 14:30. We can only have 20 people per group – so sign up now – first come, first served!

A note regarding parking at the museum – please see second page!

Afterwards, we will have dinner at the nearby GSV Vereinsgastätte Erdmannhausen. The absolute deadline to sign-up is Monday, 7 January, 2019.

If you will also be joining us for dinner, please choose your meal from the attached menu.

Directions:

By car: Take A81 (Stuttgart-Heilbronn), exit at Pleidelsheim direction Marbach to Erdmannhausen. Or take B14 or B27. It is about 50 minutes from downtown Stuttgart.

By Public transportation: From the Hauptbahnhof take S4 direction Backnang and get off at Erdmannhausen – it is an 8 minute walk from the station to the museum.

Address for the Brezel Museum: Bad Strasse 8, 71729 Erdmannhausen – please note that the museum is a little hard to see from the street because it is tucked in behind a residential building. You'll know you're in the right place when you see the small playground with this large brown Brezel sculpture:

→Parking at the Brezel Museum: The museum is in a residential neighborhood with limited parking options. The museum itself has a parking lot with only 4 slots. If you park in the big lot at the train station (there is a meter), it is only an 8 minute walk to the museum.

Address for the GSV Vereinsgastätte Erdmannhausen: Herdweg 1, 71729 Erdmannhausen. By car it is just a few minutes from the museum. By foot it is a 30 minute walk. The restaurant has a good-sized parking lot.

Attachment: see attached Menu (Speisekarte) for pre-ordering.

Reservations not kept will require reimbursement for costs incurred by the club.
