April, 2024

Dear Members and Guests,

please join us on Saturday, April 13, 2024, for a tour of the Theodor-Heuss-Haus and the Bismarck-Tower in Stuttgart-Nord.

Source all photos: Christel Baumann (private - by permission)

Theodor Heuss (1884-1963) was a German liberal politician who served as the first President of West Germany (Bundespräsident – Federal President) from 1949 to 1959. In his biography, German history is reflected from the German Empire over two World Wars to the Federal Republic of Germany. After his presidency he spent his remaining 4 years in the house we will visit. We'll see his private rooms, an example of home décor in the 50s/60s in Germany, and learn about the political office of the Bundespräsident of Germany.

The Stuttgart Bismarck Tower was opened in July 1904 and is one of about 240 Bismarck Towers that were built in various styles across Germany to commemorate its first chancellor Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898). The first tower was finished in 1869, the last around 1934. The Stuttgart Tower was initiated by the students of the University of Stuttgart (Technische Hochschule) and financed through campaigns and donations.
